RAUL CASTRO AWAITED AT CONFERENCE

By STANFORD BRADSHAW
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Chile today expelled a party of Cuban soldiers and newsmen who, ostensibly on a good will trip, landed without authorization in Santiago Monday aboard a Cuban air force transport.

Two Chilean warplanes escorted the Cuban craft from this city. Scene of the Inter-American foreign ministers conference on Caribbean tensions which both Cuba's Premier Fidel Castro and his brother, Maj. Raul Castro, have called a farce.

The transport flew to Lima, Peru.

The Chilean government promised every courtesy to Raul, commander in chief of Cuba's armed forces, if he chose to come on to this city. But the fiery, 30-year-old revolutionary may have canceled his plans now that the advance party has been turned back.

Lima reported no indications that he planned to continue on to Santiago, where the ministerial conference ends today.

The Chilean government protested to Cuba over the plane's arrival with armed soldiers aboard and without permission.

There were strong suspicions among some conference delegates that Raul's trip was planned to grab headlines from the conference, which has been seeking ways to lessen tensions in the Caribbean created partly by invasions launched from Cuba.

An advance Cuban military plane, carrying 12 newsmen, 13 bearded soldiers equipped with pistols and machineguns and a crew of 7, was seized when it landed here Monday. The party was kept under guard and ordered to leave the country today.

Chilean officials said the Cubans did not have the advance permission required for the landing of a foreign military plane carrying armed personnel. They said none of those aboard had Chilean visas and some did not have identification papers.

Brushing aside the Castros' criticism, the 21 foreign ministers meanwhile agreed unanimously to give special temporary powers to the Inter-American Peace Committee in an effort to curb further invasions by would be revolutionaries and their sympathizers.

Dad Drowns Trying To Rescue Two Tots

BRISTOL, R. I. (AP)—Adelbert M. Lawrence, 40, drowned Monday while trying to rescue his two children who were being swept into deep water of Mount Hope Bay aboard a large inner tube. Police said Lawrence disappeared trying to reach the children Linda, 10, and John, 4. They later were picked up by a boat.

Dems in Revolt Over Amendments To Pa. Sales Tax

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Democratic revolt is threatening Republican timetable to pass the 4 per cent sales tax Wednesday.

Three Democratic senators came out against the plan in the face of GOP insistence that all of the 22-vote Democratic minority support it as a condition for Republicans to put the remaining four votes needed to pass. Two other Democrats indicated they were on the fence.

"This is a soak-the-poor tax," said Sen. William J. Lane, of Washington, one of the dissident Democrats.

He said Republican-sponsored amendments approved by the Senate Finance Committee Monday night favored what he terms big business.

The other two rebellious Democrats were Sens. Peter J. Cameli and Benjamin R. Donohue, both of Philadelphia. They said they won't vote for the 14 1/2 million dollar measure unless assurance is given that Republicans won't chop appropriations for Philadelphia.

Chairman Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster) of the Finance Committee said the proposal to increase the 3 1/2 per cent sales levy to 4 per cent would be put to a vote Wednesday under present plans.

The House passed 4 per cent sales tax would remain permanent instead of dropping to 3 per cent June 1, 1961 as had (Turn to Page Ten)

By MARK T. SHEERAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Lights flickering off in hospital operating rooms. Elevator service knocked out in huge apartment buildings. Packed subways, with a sweating human cargo, trapped in underground tunnels.

That was the picture as a sudden power failure struck the heart of Manhattan.

The power failure hit thousands of buildings in a 500-block section of upper Manhattan, leaving a half million people without elevators, air conditioning, traffic lights, or any of the complex systems that keep a great city functioning smoothly.

The power failure began in mid-afternoon Monday. Gradual restoration continued into the early morning hours today.

Power was completely restored to the area at 2:42 a.m. today, almost 13 hours after it went off.

The mercury was near 90 when power went off and the humidity was suffocating. Suddenly every intersection became a traffic jam.

Then the recovery began. In hospitals, emergency lights came on. Extra police poured into the area, straightened out the traffic.

Police sent emergency generator trucks to Mount Sinai Hospital, where nine polio patients in iron lungs depended on auxiliary power.

Subways, which have independent power but were stopped when signal lights went out, began to crawl, as workers with red lanterns signalled the way was clear ahead.

Apartment dwellers began to find out it feels to climb stairs.

Then darkness came, and New Yorkers in the stricken area saw the eerie spectacle of a city without lights.

In hospitals, they faced the problem of getting expectant mothers to delivery rooms without elevators. At least one child was delivered in the beam of a flashlight.

But New York night life went on. Bartenders bought candles by the dozen, and complained because the beer was warm.

Children, when they found the television and radio sets wouldn't work, enjoyed the novelty of seeing candle flames flickering along Broadway.

Bank vaults wouldn't close, and extra guards were assigned. At a radio station disc jockeys had a field day. The turntables were knocked out, so no records could be played, and the listeners were treated to one, long, continuous line of chatter.

Meanwhile, 10,000 employees of the Consolidated Edison Co. labored to repair the damage to power lines, apparently caused by a record demand made by refrigerating and other cooling devices.

Extra police were assigned to Central Park, which stretches through the middle of the darkened city.

BELLMAN, N. J. (AP)—Larry Weisenbach, 2, suffocated Monday when a ping pong ball became stuck in his throat.

Three doctors opened the boy's chest and massaged his heart. After nearly two hours, they pronounced him dead.

Union Chiefs To Ask Congress To Amend Measure

By NORMAN WALKER
FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP)—AFL-CIO chiefs mapped plans today to try to get Congress to cut from Senate and House labor control bills the provisions to which organized labor objects most.

The differing bills passed by the two houses are now before a joint conference committee. The union leaders expressed dislike for both, but held some hope that the conference group might rewrite a bill to salvage what organized labor considers the better features of each.

That hope obviously ran counter to the mood of many Congress members pushing for a bill they consider strong enough to control racketeering and other abuses shown by Senate investigations in a segment of labor-management relations.

The AFL-CIO leaders are attending executive council sessions in this Pocono Mountain resort area. They still are trying to figure the 229-201 House vote last week that upset House leadership plans and put over a labor control bill personally endorsed by President Eisenhower.

It was the measure least desired by union leaders, who had criticized as too severe the much milder version passed earlier by the Senate.

Blame Death on Heat And Driving Strain

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—Heat, humidity and the strain of driving have led to the death of a 70-year-old man who stopped near here to ask directions.

Theodore G. Knauss of Slippery Rock, Pa., was en route to visit his son in Clarksville, Ind., Monday when he stopped at a farmhouse north of Findlay while looking for U. S. 24.

Blanchard Valley Hospital officials said Knauss suffered an acute circulatory collapse brought on by heat and exertion. His son's name is unknown.

St. Louis Police Have Skirmish Chasing Negroes

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Two white policemen in plain clothes said a large, unruly crowd of Negroes interrupted their pursuit of a youthful Negro purse snatcher at a housing project Monday night.

The milling crowd was dispersed only after about 20 uniformed policemen were sent to the area of the predominantly Negro project.

Three dogs of the police canine corps were used to force back the crowd. No arrests were made.

Patrolman Richard Jones said at least 500 Negroes had gathered before reinforcements arrived. By this time the crowd included women and children, who apparently were merely curious, he said.

The purse snatcher fled into a building at the project and escaped.

Jones and his partner, Donald Strate, had fired three shots at the running youth when they were surrounded. Jones said the crowd—some screaming and cursing—numbered perhaps 200 within a few minutes and continued to increase.

"They had me pinned against a taxicab and two of the men grabbed me. Strate was a little distance away from me and was surrounded, too," Jones said.

Jones had the driver of the cab summon additional police via the taxi's two-way radio.

Jones and Strate had been stationed in a bus in an effort to solve a recent series of bus hold-ups.

Three young Negroes came up to the bus when the bus stopped at a corner and one reached through a window, struck a woman passenger and grabbed her purse. The two officers jumped off and pursued the trio.

Bill Aimed To Correct Right-To-Know Measure

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new Senate bill would correct an omission in the state right-to-know law, which a Crawford County judge said made the act unconstitutional.

The 1957 act failed to specify in its title that due notice must be given of public meetings. Judge Herbert Mook noted the omission in a ruling several weeks ago.

The bill introduced Monday by Sen. Raymond F. Shafer (R-Crawford), is designed to meet the objection. Shafer said the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association asked him to introduce the corrective measure.

"I readily agreed because I believe in such legislation," said the lawmaker.

The measure is cosponsored by Sen. Irving J. Whalley (R-Somerset).

Marines Pay Stripes For Stealing Emblem

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Eleven Marines paid a stripe apiece Monday for stealing the general's flag from the Marine Corps recruit depot.

Each was reduced one rank. The Marines include one corporal and his Marine bride of one month. The flag was found under the rug in the couple's home.

The flag of Gen. Randolph Pate, Marine Corps commandant, was swiped during a visit by the general July 28.

FATAL SHOOTING

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Coroner J. Clinton Atwell was investigating today the fatal shooting of steelworker Ray E. Peters, 45. Atwell said Peters was shot Monday with a new rifle he took to the Butler City Hunting and Fishing Club's rifle range to try out.

No Progress Reported In Food Store Strike

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Clifton Caldwell, president of Local 590 of the Amalgamated Food Employees Union, reported Monday that no progress had been made in contract negotiations with the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. Union and company officials had met with Federal Mediation Commissioner A. A. Desser to discuss a new contract for the Altoona district of A and P. The old pact expired July 12.

Further talks were scheduled for Friday in Pittsburgh.

TREMBLORS CENTER WRATH IN AREA IN AND AROUND YELLOWSTONE NAT'L PARK

BULLETIN

HELENA, (AP)—A Montana civil defense report said today between 100 and 150 people in about 50 automobiles apparently are marooned in a canyon between Hebgen Dam, damaged by earthquakes during the night, and a rockslide seven miles below the dam.

The Montana civil defense director, Hugh Potter, said the report was from the pilot of a State Highway Department plane which flew over the scene.

The rockslide has damaged the river below the dam, Potter said he was advised and the water is rising slowly.

He said this indicated that the dam is holding, at least partially.

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Earthquakes shook the northwest from British Columbia to Wyoming Monday night and early today, reportedly killing six persons, damaging Montana's big Hebgen Dam and toppling a mountain to block the Madison River a few miles below it.

The report of deaths came from the Madison County sheriff's office.

The chief of the Montana Highway Patrol, Alex B. Stephenson, was quoted by State Civil Defense Director Hugh Potter as saying between 100 and 150 people apparently were marooned between the dam and the slide.

Sheriff Donald J. Skerritt and Pilot Al Newby, after an early morning flight over the area, said "a mountain slid into the river."

They estimated the slide is 200 to 300 feet high.

They reported the 35-mile long Hebgen Reservoir was "tipped askew" by the quake with the north shore dropping from 6 to 15 feet and the south shore rising as much. They said a giant fissure has opened up the length of Hebgen Lake on the north side all the way to West Yellowstone.

A campground in Madison Canyon was completely buried by the slide, the sheriff and pilot reported, and bits of wreckage which appeared to be part of tents and trailers were littered about in the debris.

Sheriff Skerritt theorized that the damage to Hebgen Lake probably was caused by an earthquake near midnight.

The tremblors centered their wrath in the area in and around Yellowstone National Park.

They were felt in varying intensity from British Columbia to Oregon, across Washington, Idaho, Montana and parts of Wyoming. (Turn to Page Ten)

Congress Seems Headed For Strong Labor Control Bill

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Jubilant Republicans contended today that through their efforts and those of President Eisenhower, the Democratic Congress is heading toward passage of a strong labor control bill.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois predicted in an interview that Congress will pass a bill satisfactory to Eisenhower.

A Senate-House conference committee sets out late today to try to compromise differing Senate and House versions. The conference was arranged after some GOP senators won an understanding that the Senate will get a chance to vote on the House bill at some point if no agreement is reached.

Eisenhower had criticized the Senate-passed bill as ineffective, and had spoken out strongly for the more restrictive bill which the House later passed. But the Senate made no effort Monday to vote on the House bill as a substitute for its own.

Rep. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, assistant House GOP leader, said in a separate interview Republicans had received a political shot in the arm by House passage last week of the stronger measure.

Repair Crews Are Reported on Way

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—The president of the Montana Power Co. said today his company has learned there is a hole across part of the "top" of earthquake-shaken Hebgen Dam, which his company owns.

J. E. Corette said emergency repair equipment is being dispatched to the scene. He had no other details.

Basic Facts In Strike To Be Revealed

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell decided today to make public basic facts behind the steel strike in hopes of speeding negotiations and a settlement.

The information gathered by Mitchell as Eisenhower's personal fact-finder, will be made public for Thursday newspapers.

Mitchell said they will cover wages, prices, productivity, profits and a few related matters.

The secretary told a news conference the information covers a major part but not all of the facts he has been assembling from industrial and government sources.

Mitchell said the report will be a factual one with no recommendations for action.

He said he made no action proposals this morning in a 48-minute conference with Eisenhower. He told questioners the projected release of facts "is (Turn to Page Ten)

A.P. Death Record

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Ernest Jacchi, 84, internationally recognized educator and statesman, died Monday. He was consultant to the director of the Near and Middle East Institute, which he helped to found at Columbia University. He was born in Urech, Germany.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Joseph T. Connolly, 46, a vice president of the Columbia Broadcasting System and general manager of radio station WCAU at Philadelphia, died Monday. Death was attributed to pneumonia complications which set in after a successful brain operation several weeks ago.

PARIS (AP) — Jacques Bar-doux, 84, historian and former deputy, died Saturday.

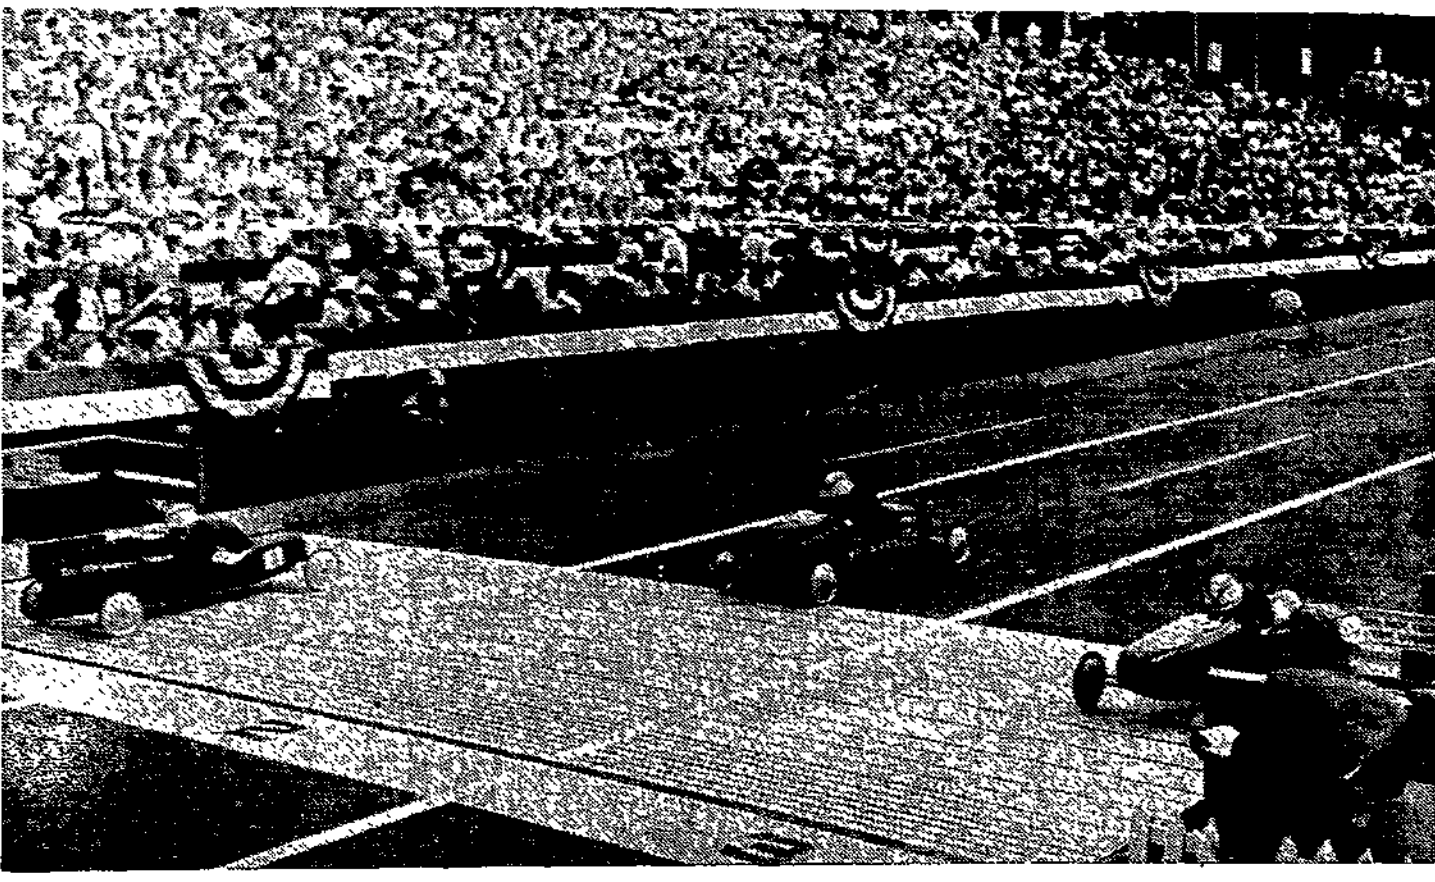

DETROIT (AP) — Dr. A. G. Studer, 91, a nationally known leader in the YMCA, died Saturday. He retired in 1946 as secretary general of the Detroit YMCA branch. Studer, who was born at Montreal, was a pioneer in adult education.

HUDSON, N.H. (AP)—Roy H. Cross, 70, who developed a gyro-stabilizer used in Army tanks in World War II, died Sunday after a lengthy illness. Cross, who was born at Nashua, N.H., had been a manufacturing engineer for Westinghouse Electric Corp. for many years.

Although the first attempt to climb Mount Rainier was in 1857, the first successful ascent did not occur until 1870.

POLIO STRIKING AGAIN

A grim warning printed on the first page of Wednesday's issue under a Washington dateline says the United States may be going through its worst polio year since Salk vaccine was introduced in 1955. Cases of polio are increasing each week, the article warns, the number of paralytic cases almost doubling the total for the same period last year. The information was contained in a release issued by the Public Health Service, which shows the mounting incidence of polio in July.

As an editorial in the Franklin News-Herald says "it is a shameful tragedy that the number of cases of paralytic polio is increasing five years after Salk vaccine became available to fight the disease."

The rise is attributable to one disgraceful fact: Americans by the millions have neglected to safeguard themselves and their children against polio by taking even one "shot" of Salk vaccine. Four "shots" are recommended for maximum protection. Everyone under 40 needs protection.

A massive, hard-hitting campaign is required to correct the situation. If the battle against polio is to be won, it must be fought on every conceivable front.

Doctors, teachers, Government officials, civic and service clubs, fraternal organizations, labor unions, etc., need to join forces against polio. Apathetic Americans must be made to realize it is their duty to guard themselves and their children against polio.

The responsibility for obtaining anti-polio inoculations rests with each individual and especially with parents.

Mid-July is the beginning of the period of maximum danger of polio. Be prepared! Be protected!

The rain of Monday was far too sparse to do much good to the turf at the Conewango Valley Country Club—where the green has turned to brown.

Warren County Republicans are expected to get back to normal activities again after the meeting tonight when a chairman will be selected to fill the vacancy caused by the death recently of Allen M. Gibson, and a party candidate will be named for Assembly at the November election.

WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Things worked out neatly for President Eisenhower. Now he can try a couple of kinds of fish—by mixing business with courtesy—when he goes to Europe after this month. The courtesy part used to bother him.

Some of Europe's crowned and government heads have visited him these past few years. Naturally, if he went to Europe, he would be expected to repay the visits.

But to make the rounds might keep him as much as six weeks away from the United States, or so he thought.

Then he got tangled up with Premier Nikita Khrushchev and things straightened out.

First, there was French President Charles de Gaulle, who looks upon himself as a symbol of French dignity and is forever worrying about preserving it.

For some time Eisenhower had wanted to meet the Frenchman in an effort to settle some problems but there was no sign De Gaulle would come here.

Eisenhower doesn't worry as much as De Gaulle about protocol—or the question of who visits whom first.

But then he ran into this problem: If he set foot in Europe he had to visit to repay and they would take time.

While this was going through Eisenhower's mind, the President worked out his deal with Khrushchev for an exchange of visits, starting in mid-September.

This created another problem. An Eisenhower-Khrushchev visit is the kind of thing that might jitter American allies with visions of secret deals, since their two countries dominate the Communist and non-Communist worlds.

To make sure the allies got no such notion, Eisenhower decided to go to Europe and reassure them.

His arrangements call for Eisenhower's leaving here Aug. 25 and getting back before Khrushchev arrives Sept. 15.

So, while he was in Europe, Eisenhower could repay some of the courtesy visits but, since he'd have to be back fairly soon to meet Khrushchev, his courtesy calls wouldn't take those six weeks he used to have in mind.

He will fly first to West Germany to see Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and President Theodor Heuss. Both had called on him here, Adenauer in 1957, Heuss the next year.

Then the President will scoot back to London, fly to Scotland to see Queen Elizabeth who visited him in 1957. This will be a brief session.

The President goes back to London then for meetings with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan who called on him last March after visiting Khrushchev in Moscow.

From London Eisenhower goes to Paris to confer with De Gaulle. This may last several days. The two men have a lot to talk about. De Gaulle isn't easy to talk to.

The President probably won't have time for other stop-offs to repay visits by Belgian King Baudouin, by Sweden's Prince Bertil and by Norway's Princess Astrid.

It is possible Eisenhower, after visiting Khrushchev later this year, will find time for some other stops on the way back.

He has been talking of making goodwill visits in other places around the world before his presidency ends in January 1961.

Here and There

Starlings, robins, moles and wasps are helping man win the long battle against Japanese beetles, reported to have been found in this area during the past few weeks. The birds walk along the ground and listen for the tell-tale sound of a beetle grub moving through the soil or chewing on a root. The National Geographic Society says. Then they dig down and get it. Moles, skunks, and other animals also eat the grubs, while some birds prey on adult beetles. A Japanese wasp is such an effective grub killer that it is spread artificially to aid control. The beetle is still invading new territories. Agriculture Department entomologists report. But its natural enemies, along with insecticides, are gradually bringing it under control in areas where it has long been established. The beetle now appears to be worst in new suburban developments, where controls are not yet effective. However, the beetle population anywhere may rise—or fall—from year to year as weather conditions change. The beetle's American history began in 1916 when it was found in a nursery at Riverport, New Jersey. It probably made the long trip from Japan—where it is not a serious pest—in the roots of some iris plants. Entomologists sprayed the area, but it was too late. Within four years a New Jersey resident could collect 15,000 beetles in a single day—as many as 278 from a single apple. Despite desperate defenses by embattled farmers, the beetle invaded other states. The Agriculture Department quarantined many areas, set up roadblocks, and inspected cars. Sharp-eyed inspectors still examine the clothing of passengers boarding airplanes for travel in the United States. The counter-measures slow up the beetle invasion, but cannot halt it. Scientists, meanwhile, have studied every phase of beetle life. The egg is laid in the ground. It hatches into a grub that feeds on the tender roots of plants. In winter, the grub moves deeper into the ground to escape the cold, but it comes back up in the spring. In late May it becomes an inactive pupa while being transformed into an adult beetle. Emerging from the ground, the beetle seeks such favorite fare as grapes, apples, cherries, corn, roses, dahlias, hollyhocks, elms, horse-chestnuts, and willows. Gregariously, the beetle joins its fellows in consuming a rose or an apple entirely before moving on to the next meal. During a life of about six weeks, the female beetle lays 40 to 60 eggs in the soil—she loves lawns and golf courses—and the annual cycle is repeated. To fight the beetle, entomologists have imported the tephritid wasp from Japan. The female wasp lays her eggs on Japanese beetle grubs, which she locates with her keen sense of smell. The wasp larvae eat the grubs and become adults. Another beetle enemy is a bacterium which causes the so-called milky disease, dangerous only to beetle grubs. The grub encounters bacteria spores in the soil, and the bacteria eat the grub, leaving behind spores to infect other grubs. Thus nature, wisely and wonderfully, seeks to maintain a proper balance.

Summit Talks Are Off, Ther On, at Ike's Press Dinners

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—President Eisenhower's much-discussed "off the record" dinners for selected news reporters have turned up two conflicting stories within 17 days.

On Aug. 8 the story—given top play on page one, column eight of the always reliable New York Times—carried this headline:

Chance for Talks
At Summit in 1959
Believed Gaining

On July 22—same paper and place—the earlier headline was:

Puzzled newspaper readers whose memories could span this eon might justifiably ask, "What goes on here?"

If a Summit was "written off" as bad three weeks ago, what had happened since then to make it all right now?

Though the President didn't announce it until Aug. 3, he knew on July 21—when the first press dinner was held—that Russia's Nikita Khrushchev had been invited here. There must, or should have been, some realization of what that involved, and what the consequences would be.

—AMONG THE REPORTERS WHO WROTE THE FIRST story were Felix Belar Jr. of the New York Times, Merriman Smith of United Press International and Marvin Arrowsmith of Associated Press. Among those who wrote the second story were W. H. Lawrence of the New York Times, Gould Lincoln of the Washington Star, Edward T. Pollard of the Washington Post and Times-Herald.

The President did say at his next general news conference for the hot polio that he was surprised his first dinner had made such big news.

So for the second one, July 27, the rules were changed. There were to be no stories. But the correspondents could use what he told them as "background."

This turned up between commas, as in Scripps-Howard Staff Writer Andrew Tully's story, which said:

"Mr. Eisenhower, it can be revealed on the highest authority, feels that since the Russians obviously want a Summit meeting, there is some hope that they will back down in their bickering Geneva demands to achieve this."

BY THE TIME THE THIRD "OFF THE RECORD" dinner came around on Aug. 7, not even this pretense of revealing it "on the highest authority" was resorted to.

The Russians hadn't backed down at Geneva one bit. Khrushchev hadn't retreated one inch. But now it could be written by a few of the best reporters in town—on nobody's authority but their own—that a Summit meeting might grow out of the Ike-Khrushchev talks.

It was further written that in view of this possibility, the President would not "mortgage his time" this fall. It was amazing the way all the stories had the same phrase about "mortgaging time."

To anyone able to add up to three, it was obvious that the President had been having another press dinner.

—THE REPORTERS PRESENT HAD BEEN FED A NEW White House line, along with their fish. They had dutifully gone out and sung it for their supper, as good reporters must do.

It was either that or else the Unnamed Spokesman—Mr. U.S. himself—had forgotten what he told the first group, 17 days before. Anyway, whereas the Summit was "off" on July 21, it was "on" by Aug. 7.

"The Horse's Mouth"—source of all inside straight dope on the news tracks—seems to have somebody's foot stuck in it.

As stated previously the Oil Centennial celebration at Titusville this summer officially recognizes failure as well as success in the quest for oil throughout the world. The ceremony at Tidouite was a fitting reminder that the first dry hole reported in the industry was brought in at that place, following closely on the heels of Drake's success. Just four days after the Colonel brought in his well at 69½ feet, J. L. Grandin, Tidouite farmer hired a man to begin "kicking down" a well in the middle of an oil spring just a few miles from Titusville. Just why the Grandin well—in view of the surface indications—failed to produce oil remains something of a mystery. Today's oil men report the site still "looks good." The spring still flows and oil is still apparent in the water. But Grandin's effort was not merely the first of half a million dry holes the industry has thus far drilled. It was also the first to have the tools stuck in it, and the first to be "shot"—that is, to have an explosive charge set off at the bottom of the hole in hopes of encouraging a flow of oil. The appropriateness of signaling Grandin's success becomes apparent when it is realized that even with today's highly advanced scientific and technical knowledge, instruments and drilling equipment, eight out of nine exploratory wells turn out to be dry holes. And drilling costs have risen from the estimated $2,500 spent on the first successful well to a minimum of $100,000—and on up to as much as $3 million. The Oil Centennial is our salute to an industry that, in its first hundred years, has changed the face of the earth, our concepts of power and our mode of life—at work and at play. It has brought petroleum up from a medicine-show curiosity to a commodity of which nine million barrels a day are required to keep the wheels turning in the USA alone. And (Turn to Page Twelve).

Radio and TV

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the last column from my typewriter on the subject of television and radio.

In four years I've written around 600,000 words at this job, mostly concerning television because there's so little to report about radio these days.

This space soon will be taken over by Cynthia Lowry, an energetic, excellent reporter, and a friend of many years. I'm sure you'll enjoy reading what Cynthia writes.

Personally, I'm going to work for myself as a free lance writer. It is an interesting—even a fascinating—way to go broke. It also will help me recover my amateur status as a television viewer.

I'm walking off the field a little bit tired. But I'm not going away mad. That is, I'm not going to stop watching TV. During the coming season I'll be watching occasionally with the other amateurs—and reading the newspapers to learn whether the professionals agree with me.

The World Series, a good football game sometimes, tennis all-ways—these things will appeal to me. So will the nightly news reports of Chet Huntley and David Brinkley on NBC. I've always found many of the late Sunday afternoon shows on CBS and NBC stimulating—and I'll continue to find them so.

The new specials Goodman Ace is preparing for CBS sound interesting—and what will "Playhouse 90" come up with? The new "Sunday Showcase" will find me at its window on NBC where I'll also sample the Friday and Tuesday night specials.

There will be other good things. There will also be slop, as there always has been—but I won't have to look at it.

After I walk off the field in a few minutes I'll miss friends in the office and in television too. I'll miss letters from sincere and honest people in far parts of the country. But I'll have amusing memories.

Much of what I forecast failed to come true. There were a few small triumphs. I said that Dinah Shore could carry an hour show—and she certainly could. I said that Dick Clark would be a big hit—and he is. Every time Jack Paar lost a job I'd say he was bound to succeed some day—and he has.

Then, too, I had days of agony when the ardent commercialism of television weighed me down. Foolishly I once thought I might try to help change some of that. But I couldn't and I didn't.

I've come to believe that the importance of the medium looms too large to a so-called professional because he understandably wants to feel that this job is important. But the amateur sees it more clearly simply for what it's worth to him.

So save me a seat in the bleachers.

Chinese tradition associates jade with the five cardinal virtues—charity, modesty, courage, justice and wisdom.

LEG CRAMPS AT NIGHT

Leg cramps occurring during rest periods or sleep may be relieved by kneading the knot in the muscle or jumping out of bed, standing on the affected foot, and bending the knee in such a way that the tendon Achilles is stretched.

Everyone is entitled to an occasional leg cramp but when the spasms come on night after night, an attempt should be made to find and eliminate the cause. Muscular strain is the most common offender. Cramping often follows unusual activity or muscular effort. The housewife is likely to be bothered after a major housecleaning job or a strenuous shopping tour. Pregnancy adds to the strain.

The condition of the feet is important. Strain associated with fallen arches, for example, leaves the supportive muscles irritable and ripe for a good cramp. Shoe correction, including pads and bars, may be needed.

Muscle cramps are everyday affairs for victims of nerve disorders such as polio or multiple sclerosis. The heightened excitability of the nerves throws the muscles into painful spasms. Poor circulation has a similar effect on the fibers, which explains why so many older individuals are bothered with leg cramps.

Many drugs have been advocated for prevention or treatment. Calcium tablets or powder may help some whereas others are benefited by a muscle relaxant such as Disipal or Flexin. Vitamin B, quinine or Benadryl are recommended by some physicians.

Drugs that improve circulation are most useful for those with hardening of the arteries. Foot and leg exercises help strengthen the muscles. Along this line, swimming is excellent. Warm baths stimulate circulation and tone up the tissues.

Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflet on leg cramps if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

TOMORROW: Good nutrition for children.

FREE CHOICE OF PATIENT

R. L. writes: Is it unethical for a physician to give up a patient without the patient's consent?

REPLY
No, but it's not good public relations. A physician has the same right to sever his relations with a patient as the patient has to seek another physician. He should give emergency care and complete any plan of treatment that he has started as well as any other responsibility of commitment he has made with the patient.

BLOCKING A NERVE

W. T. writes: What is a nerve block for Raynaud's disease?

REPLY
I assume you mean a sympathectomy for treatment purposes rather than deadening or blocking a nerve with procaine for diagnosis. The former is an operation in which the sympathetic nerve fibers in the back are severed in order to relax the spastic blood vessels and improve the blood supply to hands or feet.

COCKTAIL CALORIES

A. M. writes: I read somewhere that a person who drinks liquor cannot reduce. Will you please tell me why?

REPLY
It is difficult to drink and reduce too. Alcoholic drinks are loaded with calories. In addition many persons lose their will power after a cocktail or two and go overboard on eating. On the other hand, chronic alcoholics lose weight because they neglect to eat.

CONTRACEPTIVE

Mrs. H. F. writes: I have been told there is a shot women can take twice a year to keep from becoming pregnant. Is there such a thing?

REPLY
Not to my knowledge. Reports have appeared on the use of hormones for this purpose but they must be administered more often than twice a year. The medical profession is cautious about recommending this method.

Today's Health Hint—
Self-diagnosis of a persistent headache is dangerous.

Business Mirror

(Second of Three Articles)
By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's construction industry — mainstay during the recession and bellwether of the recovery — reports some projects halted or being delayed by the steel strike.

But the majority of builders and their suppliers say they either have all the steel they need for current projects or have supplies good for one to four months more.

A check throughout the nation by Associated Press reporters, however, reveals wide variations in supplies among firms and a growing fear that some special steel products may run out or that some suppliers or parts may run into trouble and thus grind operations to a halt.

Also some firms are turning to substitutes for steel, paying higher prices for premium steel, or importing from Europe and Japan.

Projects already halted or delayed are largely in the nature of flukes.

One company planning a building in Kansas City ordered structural steel so far in advance that by the time of the strike the building plans had been changed. The company now is offering the steel it can't use to anyone who can.

A small highway bridge near Austin, Minn., is delayed because the contractor ordered the steel early enough but forgot to get it out of the mill before the pickets arrived.

An Orlando, Fla., contractor decided to use precast concrete in stead of steel in a department store.

But in most of the country the construction companies are whistling cheerful tunes.

Among those claiming no steel problems at all are: Kentucky's state building program directors; Williamsburg, Va., builders at the College of William and Mary; Illinois state project administrators; and Denver school builders.

Three to six months supplies of steel are reported by: South Florida builders. The Orleans Material and Equipment Co. of New Orleans; Oklahoma City and Tulsa contractors; the Mississippi Valley Structural Steel Co. at St. Louis; and a majority of Texas builders.

The St. Paul Structural Steel Co. says it can last another 10 weeks on present stocks. Baltimore's early steel ordering will carry builders for another two months. Most Indiana firms have plenty now but say another month of strike would hurt.

Seattle says prestrike steel orders will last longer there than some places because most big steel users in Washington were idled before the steel strike by a machinists' work stoppage and because the construction industry has been slowed by its own labor troubles.

And baseball-conscious San Francisco happily notes that its citizens are being lulled into complacency because the 196½-foot beams for the Giants' new park are arriving on schedule.

NEXT: Are defense projects endangered? And how about the inflation threat?

Committees Ready Flower Show Details

There is no denying the statement it takes work to stage a Flower Show and Warren Garden Club and Warren Woman's Club members are bending every effort to make their fourth annual Flower Show September 11 a great treat for everyone in the Warren area.

The show will be presented in the Woman's Club auditorium and there will be no charge for either competitors or for the viewing public.

Mrs. Albert Eberly and Mrs. E. Gail Hamilton are co-chairmen of the staging committee, which is comprised of Mrs. Sidney W. Blackman, Miss Carol Blackman, Mrs. Henry Lanman, Mrs. Patrick Gerardi, Mrs. R. G. Chapel, Mrs. Melvin Keller and Mrs. Marshall Bucklin.

Floral arrangements for tables and mantels in the drawing rooms and dining rooms of the Woman's Club are being handled by Mrs. J. W. A. Luca and Mrs. Stuart Myers. Mrs. P. L. Davis, Sr. is chairman of hostesses for the show.

Other committees working on additional details for the show will be announced in the near future.

All gardeners in the area are urged to bring the best from their gardens for the competition. Regulations and classifications were printed in full in the Thursday, August 13, issue of the Times-Mirror.

MOTHERS PLAN SALE

SUGAR GROVE—Carol Jean Wolcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolcott, Sugar Grove, and Carl Johnson, son of Edward Johnson and the late Mrs. Johnson of Sugar Grove RD 3, were united in marriage at 7:00 p. m. Friday in the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. L. D. Say, pastor, performed the single ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

Vases of white gladioli and shasta daisies decorated the church, and garden flowers were used in the Wolcott home, where 30 guests were received following the ceremony. Mrs. Walter Baumgardner, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake. Guests at the wedding were from Sanborn and Lakewood, N. Y.; Meadville and Sugar Grove.

After a wedding trip in Canada, the couple will live in Sugar Grove.

The bride, who was gown in ballerina-length white nylon, with white accessories, was a member of the 1959 class at Eisenhower High School. The bridegroom attended Sugar Grove Joint School.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE Warren Chapter 693, Women of the Moose, enjoyed a Chapter Night program presented by officers at the regular meeting. Senior Regent Vera Petrowski presiding.

It was decided the Moose family picnic will be held at Old Oakview August 30, a basket affair. A vote of thanks was given Marion Root, at whose cottage in Hackney Meadows the WOMM held their annual picnic.

Announcement was made of ritual practice to be held at 7:30 this evening in the Moose Temple. All officers, chairmen, escorts and co-workers are asked to be in attendance.

MR. AND MRS. PHILLIP E. MULLIGAN

At 7:30 p. m. July 11 in First Lutheran church, the Rev. Frederick B. Haer performed a double ring ceremony to unite in marriage Phyllis Mary Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mason of Warren RD 2, and Phillip Eugene Mulligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mulligan, Corry RD 2. Mrs. Glenn Engstrom was at the organ and the vocalist was William Cornwall.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses. Her gown was styled with a scalloped scoop neckline and long sleeves in a basque bodice, a floor length skirt having lace appliques in the front and terminating in a back sweep. Completing her outfit, a veil of imported illusion fell fingertip length from a pearl crown.

As matron of honor for her sister, Mrs. James Sadler wore taffeta and nylon over a tiered mesh petticoat, the daintily embroidered bodice having a scoop neckline and long satin ties. A matching headband of floral design held her brief veil. Similarly gowned, bridesmaids were Joanne Franklin, Warren, and June Chapman, Kennedy, N. Y.

James Sadler, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man; ushers were Maynard Chapman, Kennedy, N. Y., and Ted Wiltse, Fentonville, N. Y.

Wearing pink carnation corsages, Mrs. Mason chose light blue lace over taffeta, Mrs. Mulligan wore navy sheer dotted voile. Mrs. Fred Webster, grandmother of the bridegroom, was favored with a corsage of white carnations.

The reception for 85 guests followed immediately in the church parlors, where appointments featured bouquets of the bride and attendants, also a five-tiered cake, topped with bridal miniatures and encircled with springerle and pom poms. Out of town guests were from Corry, Spring Creek, Jamestown and Starbuck.

Mrs. Ben Huckabone cut the cake; Patricia Beardsley and Susan Smith poured; aides were Arlene Simpson and Yvonne Whipple.

Returning from a honeymoon to Atlantic City, the newlyweds are at home at 28 West Mosher street, Falconer, N. Y. Graduate of Warren High, the bride has been employed by Warren Grocery Company; alumnus of Corry High, the bridegroom is employed by GLF at Falconer.

Hostesses who honored the bride-elect were aunts of the bride, Mrs. Mabel Munger, Mrs. Ray Klenck; Mrs. James Sadler; Mrs. James Sadler and Joanne Franklin; Mrs. Donald Cummings; Lois Cummings and Mrs. Sydney Cummings; and Mrs. Charles Mulligan, Corry.

BIRTHDAY WISHES TO HERBERT P. STONE
Many friends throughout the area, including the Times-Mirror, will be extending best wishes to Herbert P. Stone on Thursday, as he quietly observes his 90th birthday anniversary. # House Passes Bill Curtailing Use Of Plastic Bags

HARRISBURG (AP)—Manufacture, sale or use of plastic bags would be curtailed under a measure which passed the House Monday night.

There was a surprisingly large amount of opposition to the bill, which next goes to the Senate for consideration.

The legislation was described as poor by Rep. Blaine C. Hocker (R - Dauphin) spokesman for the 57 Republicans who voted against the passage.

Other Republicans and Democrats produced 120 votes for the bill.

It would ban any plastic bag in which has a combined length and width of 25 inches or more and which is 1-1000 of an inch or more thick.

"There are many, many things that are packaged in plastic bags," Hocker told newsmen. "How are you going to regulate them? How can you legislate against modern things?"

He told newsmen the bill would permit use of bags just under 12 inches by 13 inches, adding: "A baby's head will still go in that."

The legislation was advocated as a safety measure following a nationwide increase in reports of deaths, particularly among children, by suffocation, in the airtight bags.

Robert Geiger Takes Post in Springfield

Robert E. Geiger, 31 Buchanan street, left over the weekend for a two-week training session in Columbus, O., and Indianapolis, Ind., before reporting to Springfield, Ill., as sales representative for the White-Haines Optical Company.

He will be responsible for the Springfield-Peoria area and will be joined by Mrs. Geiger and the children in the former city as soon as living quarters have been found.

Resident of Warren for the past eight years, Mr. Geiger came here from Syracuse, N. Y., and has been associated with the Gahring Optical Laboratories as an optician.

An active community figure, he served the Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce in many by Pennsylvania. Jaycees as "outstanding chapter president of the year". He worked with both the senior and Young Republicans, serving as fifth ward committeeman and as chairman of the younger group.

Also active in First Baptist church, he served it as a Sunday school teacher, as a trustee, and as chairman of the board of Christian education.

Veteran of Air Force service in World War II, he served in the European Theatre, and, after coming to Warren, was captain and commanding officer of the Air Force Reserve unit.

Puget Sound, 80 miles long and five wide, contains 300 islands.

Area Natives Are Held for Robbery In Phoenix, Ariz.

(Special to The Times-Mirror) PHOENIX, Ariz.—Two brothers, who formerly resided in Warren, Pa., face accessory after the fact felony charges here in connection with an armed robbery in which a liquor store clerk was slugged on the head.

David McGrath Bailey, born in Warren July 30, 1925, and Harry Joseph Bailey, born in Warren March 14, 1929, were arrested here minutes after the robbery with Roger F. Hill, 27, a native of Marine City, Mich., who is accused of actually staging the holdup and slugging.

In addition to the local charge, David Bailey and Hill are wanted in Royal Oak, Mich., on armed robbery charges.

Police said the three were overheard planning an armed robbery as they sat at a bar and then were arrested when they returned to the same neighborhood tavern minutes after the holdup.

The Bailey brothers waited near the liquor store while Hill staged the robbery, police claimed. The officers also claim the Baileys then shared in the loot. Two stolen guns were also recovered. Police said they found one gun in Harry Bailey's pocket.

Clarence Bates, 58, the liquor store clerk, claimed Hill robbed him of $108 at gun point and then slugged him on the head while marching him to a back room. Thirty stitches were required to close three cuts on his head.

A tavern owner, who said he overheard the three planning a robbery, notified two off-duty policemen. One of the officers telephoned headquarters to report the information and learned Bates had just been robbed. The Baileys and Hill then returned to the tavern and were arrested.

Jaycees' Reunion Picnic Wednesday At Musante Camp

Deadline for reservations for tomorrow night's Jaycee Reunion picnic is tonight. Any present or past Jaycee who has not made a reservation is urged to call project chairman Tom Musante at RA 3-3004 or Jaycee President Chuck Thomas at RA 3-2478 tonight.

Site for the reunion is Chairman Musante's summer camp which is located on the Chapman Dam road. It is situated on the right hand side of the road about 1/2 of a mile before reaching Chapman Dam. Starting time for the get-together has been set at 6:00 p. m.

Chairman Musante and his committee have completed plans for the reunion which promises to attract a large number of the more than 700 young men who have been or now are members of the Warren chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

According to Musante, dinner will consist of Lewises famed barbecued chicken. Price for the meal is $1.75 payable at the picnic. A short program and a long fellowship period will follow the picnic and those unable to attend the dinner are encouraged to come later in the evening.

"The important thing right now," Musante said, "is that everyone who is planning to eat dinner at the reunion get their reservation in immediately. It will be impossible to serve anyone without a reservation."

Amateur Tourney At Kinzua Sunday

Joey Brindis is the man for scratch division players to beat Sunday in fourth annual Kinzua Valley Amateur Golf tournament.

The sizzling Warren amateur won last year's play. Recently on the links of Kinzua Valley golf course, Joey fired a 32-34-66.

Tournament will be made up of four flights, starting with scratch division, and having three handicap divisions. Equal prizes will be distributed in all flights, course owner Les Sheldon reports.

Play will be 18 holes. Tee off time is slated for 8:30 a. m. Entry fee of $5 includes lunch and prizes. Early entries with requested tee-off times, is asked for by tournament officials.

Meeting Is Held On Issuing of Hunting Licenses

To determine a uniform procedure of distributing and issuing the 1959 Pennsylvania hunting licenses, officers of the County Treasurers' Association met in Harrisburg last week with M. J. Golden, executive director of the Game Commission and his staff, and George F. McManus, chief of the miscellaneous license division of the Department of Revenue.

The purpose was to promote a closer liaison between the county treasurer, the Department of Revenue and the Game Commission, particularly as applies to the issuance and handling of antlerless deer licenses and applications and archery licenses for deer.

The Treasurers' Association and the two state agencies concerned agreed:

1. General resident and non-resident 1959 hunting licenses should be shipped to county treasurers in ample time so the resident licenses may go on sale Aug. 17.
2. Archery licenses and applications to be in the hands of the county treasurers on or before Sept. 21 and should go on sale as soon as possible. (Licenses for the archers' deer season may be purchased from any county treasurer in Pennsylvania or the Department of Revenue, Harrisburg.)
3. Antlerless deer licenses and applications to be in the hands of county treasurers at the earliest possible date, but these licenses are not to be sold prior to Oct. 5. In accordance with existing law, no antlerless deer license shall be sold to nonresidents prior to 30 days before the season opens. (This year they may be sold Nov. 14, to Dec. 13.)
4. An antlerless deer license must be bought from the county treasurer of the county in which the applicant will hunt.
5. Not more than six antlerless deer licenses to be sold any one person. Twice as many applications as antlerless deer licenses to be made available to county treasurers.
6. County treasurers will advise the Game Commission headquarters at stipulated times in October as to license sales, whether sold out of antlerless deer licenses, etc.
7. Hunting license applications mailed to county treasurers to be accompanied by eight cents in return postage.
8. Replacement of lost antlerless deer licenses and tags to be handled in the manner now applying to a lost general hunting license certificate and tag. Forms and tags to cover replacement needs to be provided the county treasurers.

Lundmark Upsets Pair In Pine Grove Event

Keith Lundmark of Russell pulled an upset victory at Shippenville Sunday evening with his flat head 1948 Ford.

Racing on Pine Grove Speedway track, Lundmark shoved Neil Swartzlander and his nephew Dick into the background with their previously unbeaten 1956 Buicks.

The Swartzlanders had won all meets at Pine Grove until Lundmark entered the oval Sunday. Besides winning the 25-lap feature, in which he led all in way, Lundmark triumphed in second heat and first semi.

In the feature event, Neil Swartzlander was second and nephew Dick, third.

Lundmark's flat head motor was the only one on the track Sunday, others being '56 models and up.

White Sox Pitching Staff Is Handed Another Jolt

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox managed to hold their American League lead without Dick Donovan, but can they do it without Billy Pierce?

With Donovan still a question mark after a three-week layoff because of an ailing shoulder, the White Sox pitching staff was handed another jolt Monday when Pierce was sidelined for from five to eight days. The stubby southpaw pulled a back muscle last weekend.

That puts more pressure on Early Wynn, a wonder at 39, Bob Shaw and Batty Latman, their only dependable starters, and relievers Turk Lown and Gerry Staley for what figure to be 10 telling days for the White Sox.

Early Wynn Will Be Going for His 17th Win Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) — At an age when most men get sore arms just tossing peanuts to elephants, Early Wynn and his durable right arm have American League batters eating out of his hand.

The 39-year-old pitcher for the league-leading Chicago White Sox will try for his 17th victory of the season tonight against the Baltimore Orioles. He has lost 7.

In his last two outings he has hurled three-hit shutouts, topping the circuit with five for the campaign as well as leading in number of triumphs.

Halfback Gattuso: He Knows No Fear and Comes To Play

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — What kind of challenge is the charge of a speedy halfback to a guy who flew jet planes at close to 1,000 miles per hour?

What fear could pro football old for a man who flew 50 feet off the ground carrying a special weapon that could have blown him to bits?

The answer, of course, is none. It's the reason that Joseph Anthony Gattuso probably will win a spot as a defensive halfback on the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

Remember Gattuso?

He was a standout on the 1954 Navy football team which went to the Sugar Bowl and walloped Mississippi 21-0. Joe scored two touchdowns in the bowl triumph over New Year's Day, 1955. This was the Navy game known as "the team named Desire."

Coach Buck Shaw of the Eagles feels the 26-year-old Gattuso may make his squad because he still has that desire.

"Gattuso at 185 pounds and comparatively short is small by pro football standards," says the veteran coach. "But he is active, anxious, has desire. He's sharp, an eager beaver, has plenty of bounce. He comes to play."

Gattuso is taking his fling at pro football after four years in the service and on the recommenda-

Projected Third Major League Is Object of Meeting

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — At least five basic problems were slated to be thoroughly discussed today when baseball's top brass met with organizer William A. Shea on the projected third major league.

1. Where does this unborn Continental League plan to recruit the necessary 200 players?
2. What would be left of the minor league structure if the new league were to raid the ranks of the International League, American Association and Pacific Coast League?
3. How many cities actually could produce stadiums of major league quality and capacity?
4. How would the Continental League maintain the interest of the players and public without World Series incentive?
5. What would the new league propose to compare favorably with the major league players' pension plan?

Commissioner Ford Frick, head of the seven-man major league committee, acknowledged he was eagerly waiting to hear the answers. Shea, the New York lawyer and guiding spirit of the still unborn Continental League, admits he'd like to know some of the answers himself.

Shea, however, insists his league has no financial, personnel or park problems.

Shea has backers for five teams lined up. The founding five are New York, Houston, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Denver and Toronto. It is believed he has applications for membership from San Diego, Portland, Seattle, Buffalo, Miami, Montreal, Dallas-Ft. Worth, San Juan and Puerto Rico.

Bankers Shutout Bowlers for Title

Blanking Riverside Lanes 3-0 on Lacy Field Monday evening, Warren Bank and Trust became City champs of Borough Hot Stove Bantam division.

Bank and Trust jumped the gun for a 2-run lead in first inning and added the final run top of fourth. They were allowed seven hits by Ed Bosch, twirling for Riverside.

Roy Swanson, the winner, gave up three hits to Riverside batters while setting them down. Don Hoffman was behind the plate to assist Swanson, Dana Sorenson received for Riverside.

Blechner, Cassell and Swanson each polished off a double for the champions.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

USE THIS "VISIBLE" FLY WITH A LONG, FINE LEADER AND A LIGHTWEIGHT LINE.

WESTERN TROUT, ATLANTIC SALMON AND BASS MAY GO FOR A FLY DRAGGING AGAINST THE CURRENT, BUT A "WORKED" FLY TAKES FISH WHERE DRAGGING A FLY WOULD FAIL. WHEN THE DOWNSTREAM DRIFT ENDS AND DRAG BEGINS, START A WHIST-JERKING TWIST-RETRIEVE AS ROD TIP IS GRADUALLY RAISED. THIS SKIPS THE FLY BACK UPSTREAM, MUCH LIKE AN INSECT AGAINST THE CURRENT. USE A SMALL, "VISIBLE" DRY FLY WITH A WIDE HACKLE NEAR EYE TO CAUSE LESS WAKE AND TO SKIP BETTER. LET FLY FALL BACK A BIT BETWEEN SKIPS SO IT WON'T BE DROWNED.

American Legion On Way to Championship

American Legion won Eastern Division title of Cadet, Borough Hot Stove League, by downing Penn Furnace 4 to 3 Monday evening.

Chip Lucia and Jeff Brooks engaged in a pitchers' duel for the 8-inning game before a large crowd. Brooks gave up four hits while striking out 14. Lucia knocked 13 out of the batter's box, allowed seven hits. J. Atkins had a 3-sacker for Legion, Kane whipped one for P & A.

A throw from deep right by Roger Albaugh caught Kane trying for the plate and he was "un down" for the out.

Next Monday on Jackson Field, American Legion and winners of Western Division will clash for a best-of-three series to determine City champions in Cadet section.

Schoendienst Is Looking Ahead to Another Season

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer
MILWAUKEE (AP)—The 1958 season is running out on Red Schoendienst but the Milwaukee Braves' veteran second baseman is looking ahead to next year.

Schoendienst batting back from a bout with tuberculosis, is finding it tougher than he expected to get into condition.

"The doctor won't allow me to run much, and running is baseball," the 36-year-old redhead said. "You have to be in shape to play this game and you can't get into shape without running."

Schoendienst rejoined the Braves and donned his No. 4 uniform Monday for his first appearance in Milwaukee County Stadium since the World Series last fall.

Warren Boy Impressive In Semi-Pro Practice

Practice and drill sessions continue at Roseland Park in Jamestown three times a week for members of Jamestown Western New York Semi-Pro Conference.

Among the 33 candidates who were issued uniforms last evening was Jim Tinnell of Warren. Coach Jim Conti said Tinnell, a candidate for quarterback slot, has been impressive in practice sessions.

Last evening Tony Mihoto, Jamestown High School tackle from 1957-59 was named one of the assistants to mentor Conti.

The team practices on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 6:30 in Roseland Park. Conti stressed the point that it still is not too late for candidates to report for drills and that, so far, the battle for positions is wide open.

Warren area gridlers interested in playing Semi-Pro Football, have been invited by Conti to visit Roseland Park on any of the practice nights.

Willies-Come-Lately Keep Giants in League Top Spot

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
A bunch of Willies-come-lately these San Francisco Giants, what with Willie Mays, Willie McCovey or Willie Kirkland coming through in the late innings to keep 'em out front in that National League pennant chase.

Since taking over first place on July 30, the Giants have won 12 of 17 games—and in 9 of those victories they didn't score the clincher before the seventh inning. Fact is, in the 9 late comebacks, two were won in the seventh, three in the eighth, two in the ninth and two in extra innings.

Kirkland's done the job three times. Mays and McCovey twice each.

It was that way again Monday night as the Giants came from behind with five runs in the last three innings for a 6-3 victory over Cincinnati that gave San Francisco a three-game bulge. Mays drove in the run that tied it 3-3 with a sacrifice fly in the seventh inning. A pinch single by McCovey got the winning run home in a two-run eighth.

That added a half-game to the Giants lead as second-place Los

Jones Not Only Won Cup, He's Set to Keep It

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

FOREST HILLS, N.Y.—(NEA)—Thirty years ago the president of a Los Angeles building and loan company admonished his representatives that the firm could grow only as fast as the community. He ordered each of them to devote an afternoon a week to its general development.

THAT'S HOW PERRY T. JONES, who had been city champion, became secretary of the Southern California Tennis Association. There is some question as to which has benefited most through the years from the tireless efforts of Jones—southern California or American tennis.

Jones, 71 and looking 20 years younger, has had a hand in the development of numerous top players, including seven national champions—Johnny Doe, Ellsworth Vines, Bobby Riggs, Ted Schroeder, Jack Kramer and Pancho Gonzales. Made captain of the Davis Cup team a year ago, Jones immediately brought it back to this country with one quick move.

THERE WAS SOME OBJECTION to Alex Olmedo being made a member of the United States side, but Jones pointed out that the crew-cut Peruvian was strictly a southern California development and had been in this country for three years. Besides, Jones had a precedent. Anthony E. Wilding was imported from England to team with Norman E. Brookes and put Australia in the Davis Cup picture in 1907.

Jones is a machine-run conversationalist with the direct professional approach. You can't get results sitting on your back and Jones quickly showed the United States Lawn Tennis Association how to get off.

President of the Southern California Association for the past four years, Jones organized the Tennis Patrons' Association and the Youth Tennis Foundation, which enable wealthy people of his section to contribute to the betterment of the game.

THE THREE ORGANIZATIONS visualize the greatest tennis center in the world with 40 courts, so everybody can be taught and play. The Youth Foundation hopes to either put in coaches or assist them in 400 high schools.

All courts in the new plant will be of cement, the surface Jones hopes to make international. The idea is to eventually have the United States Championships and the Davis Cup Challenge Round played on the cement center court of the Los Angeles Tennis Club. Jones will talk for hours on his favorite subject—cement courts.

"Ninety-eight per cent of the world's courts are of clay," he stresses, "and that's the worst surface. Grass courts are limited to Australia, Wimbledon and Forest Hills. Cement and grass courts reward the attacking player, the clay court puts a premium on defense."

"Inasmuch as practically all of our players are developed on cement and it insures the trust and fastest game, why not go all out for the American way?"

Bucs Win See-saw Battle from Cubs For Fourth Place

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates were firmly in fourth place today in the National League baseball race.

They whipped Chicago 7-6, Monday night to move ahead of the Cubs by a full game.

For most of the game it appeared as if the Pirates were heading for the second division. Chicago led at one point 4-0 and Ernie Banks was hitting well.

One Banks hit was a two-run homer which put him in the home run lead with 37—one more than Washington's Harmon Killebrew has hit.

In the fourth the Pirates pulled up to 4-3 on a walk, a hit batter, an error, fielder's choice, sacrifice fly and a double. Three more runs went to Pittsburgh in the fifth. Rocky Nelson brought two runs in with a homer.

The Cubs came back themselves, tying the score in the sixth.

Pittsburgh's winning run was scored in the seventh when Dick Groat walked and Roberto Clemente hit a grounder which got past Banks. Groat went to third and scored when Earl Averill's throw from left field hit the infield dirt.

Fred Green, the third Buc pitcher, was credited with the victory—his first against no defeats.

The loss was charged to Bill Henry, the Cub's second pitcher. He now is 7-6.

The Pirates, idle today, take on the St. Louis Cardinals tomorrow night.

Eastern Combine Takes All-Star Midget Win

Coming through in last three innings, Western Division Midget All-Stars fell short of a win Saturday on Memorial Field.

Eastern division's 8-run lead built up by fourth inning was too much for the Western All-Stars to overcome. Final score was 10 to 6.

When Western got moving top of fourth, they were behind nine runs. Losers chalked up one in fourth, three in fifth and two more runs in final stanza. Eastern All-Stars added their 10th run bottom of fifth.

E. Lucia was 2 for 2, with a home run; Morgan had a double two times at bat; and Groves hit 2 for 2 for Western. Top batters in Eastern lineup was Terry Peterson with two homers in as many trips to the plate; Peterson was 2 for 3; Anderson enjoyed a perfect day in three trips; Merenick was also perfect in two trips, slapping off a homer.

Featherweight Champ Reported In "Fight Mood"

LOS ANGELES (AP)—World featherweight champion Davey Moore is in one of his moods, and you know what that means. He's spoiling for a fight.

"It's best not to try to talk to Davey before the fight," said his manager, Willie Ketchum. "Davey gets worked up, he don't like to talk to anybody."

Ex-champ Hogan (Kid) Bassey, too, was in seclusion today.

Both camps report the scrappy 128-pound battlers are as fit as well-tuned fiddles for their title fight Wednesday night.

The bout, a rematch of their bloody meeting last March, is billed for 15 rounds, or less. A crowd of 10,000 is expected to watch at the Olympic Auditorium, as well as a nationwide television audience.

The fight will be telecast beginning at 7 p. m. PDT over the ABC network.

Proposed Return Bout Is Without Promoter

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The proposed return heavyweight championship bout between Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson today was without a promoter.

There were mounting indications that it will be without champion Johansson, who lifted the crown from Patterson last June 26. The return tentatively is set for Sept. 22.

The New York State Athletic Commission Monday suspended the matchmaker's license of Bill Rosenzohn and the promoter's license of Rosenzohn Enterprises, Inc. for "statements" made by Rosenzohn.

A commission spokesman said the suspension undoubtedly was a result of a signed story by Rosenzohn in Sports Illustrated in which he said he unwillingly signed away control of Rosenzohn Enterprises so the first Johansson-Patterson fight could go.

All the confusion has brought claims and counter claims from both sides of the Atlantic.

ROBERT COWDEN IN CHAUTAUQUA OPERA
Robert Cowden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cowden, was numbered among singers appearing with the Chautauqua Opera Association in its Friday and Monday evening presentations of "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana. The Jamestown Post Journal reviewer wrote of him: "Among the shorter parts were those of the Ringmaster, sung with clarity and vigor by Robert Cowden."

HONORABLE MENTION FOR LOCAL ARTISTS
Three Warren artists won honorable mentions in the landscape category in water colors at the seventh annual Bector Plaza Art Festival held at Chautauqua. Those receiving recognition were W. H. Cannon, Ethel Kahle and Mary Whitten. Amateur and professional works was judged together by Virginia Cuthbert, noted artist of Buffalo, N. Y. Prize-winning works will be on exhibit in the Chautauqua Art Association Galleries through August 23.

Gathered From The Party Line

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Etherington and children, of Pennington, N. J., have returned home after vacationing with Mrs. Etherington's mother, Mrs. Ed Schwing, at her Chautauqua Lake cottage.

Mrs. Betty Tower, Yankee Bush road in Warren RD 2, will be home today from St. Mary's Hospital, and will be happy to see her friends.

Hired Hand Finds Way To Give Triplets Home

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Nathan Miller — who said two months ago he might have to offer his new-born triplets for adoption because of financial difficulties — is leaving a $50-a-week job he got as a result of his plight and returning to his $25-a-week job as a hired hand. Paul Jones, operator of an egg farm near here, gave Miller a job, and a house with the stipulation that the Millers keep their triplet girls. But Miller, 35, said Monday, "My family just ain't satisfied that's all. And there's a heap of walking in this egg job. And I've got bad legs. In my other job I rode a tractor mostly." Miller, his wife, the triplets and their three older children were to return to Clarendon Plantation, near Southport, N.C. Owner Cornelius Thomas is giving Miller his old job.

Times-Mirror Visited by Coast-to-Coast Cyclist

NEW YORK OR BUST — Blain Wilkinson, 18, of Los Angeles, stopped over in Warren Monday enroute to New York on his English bicycle from California. A seven-week beard growth and dark tan are the evidences of his summer trip across country. Gear on the bike includes three sets of clothing, a sleeping bag, air mattress and miscellaneous items.

— Timesphoto Shattuck

With an itching to see New York, an 18-year-old Los Angeles youth is pedaling himself cross-country on a bicycle.

Blain Wilkinson, of Fullerton, Calif., left his home June 30, seven weeks ago yesterday, on an English bicycle and determination to become a tourist of New York City.

The youth, who will enter Fullerton Junior College as a freshman next month, stopped in Warren Monday and visited with Times-Mirror staff.

Blain said he had traveled 3,000 miles as of Monday with about 400 left to go before reaching New York. He hopes to be in the world's largest city by this weekend. Just one week ago Monday, he left Chicago on his two-wheeler.

His English bicycle has eight gears. The small tires have held up the entire trip, not going flat or blowing out. Tires are hardly worn.

Blain has been eating in restaurants and sleeping in hotels mostly. Further west, he slept out a great deal. He's averaging $3.50 expenses daily on his 30-mile a day trip. Wilkinson said his traveling day is about nine hours.

Asked what prompted him to make such a trip, the Californian said it was for adventure ened area. More patrolmen walked the shadowed streets, lit only by the headlights of passing cars.

In all, 3,000 extra police were sent into the blacked-out section. Hours later, as power began to come back on, police reported only one burglary and one assault case.

The blacked-out section stretched across the island of Manhattan, from the Hudson River to the East River. On the West Side it ran the length of Central Park, from 59th to 110th sts., and on the East Side from 74th to 110th.

Burglars Break Into Russell Area Buildings

Two break-ins in the Russell area were reported today by Chief Deputy Sheriff Donnell Allen, Jr.

Sometime Saturday night, unknown persons entered the Charles Frazer home at RD 1, Russell. Deputy Allen was using leads found in the home to aid in his investigations.

A camp behind Russell skating rink near Conewango Creek was broken into twice, once last week and again Sunday evening.

Albert Figliuzzi, 425 Hickory street, is owner of the camp. Allen said foodstuffs were taken Sunday evening. He said it was juveniles Sunday evening, but older burglars who broke in last week.

Clean-Up Project For Clarendon Sat.

A clean-up day has been established by Clarendon Borough Council for this coming Saturday. Trash, scrap and weeds taken from the cellar, garage, attic and yard should be left at the curb to be picked up by the trucks starting at 9 a. m. Council said there will be curb service only for removing junk. Council voted on the project recently "for a cleaner community."

Kiwanians To Be Hosts To Clubs from Ohio

Warren Kiwanians will be host to Lakewood and Brecksville, O. clubs, as well as other visitors from Division One, for an inter-club dinner at the Penn-Laurel at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday, anticipating an attendance of approximately 100 persons.

A roundtable-luncheon will be held at the Penn Restaurant at noontime for those unable to be present for the evening function.

Members are also reminded of the annual Division meeting to be held at 6:30 p. m. August 26 at The Beachcomber in Erie, when nominations for the office of lieutenant governor will be submitted. Reservations may still be made by contacting Plummer Collins at this week's meeting.

It is expected local members will be out in considerable numbers, also, when the Pennsylvania District convention is held in Erie September 27-30.

Warren Aerie FOE To Receive Award

Warren Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will receive the Order's Bell Ringer Award at their meeting tonight.

Francis F. Arnold, Aerie president, made the announcement of the presentation today.

Harry A. Wood, past State president of Pennsylvania State Aerie, will present the award to Warren Aerie. Lou Smith, past president, will receive the engraved Town Crier Bell symbol of the award for Warren Aerie's work this year in membership, fraternal, civic and community programs of Eagles.

Members of Conewango Aerie are requested by officials to be present for tonight's program.

But the committee placed on a temporary basis two other House-passed bills it sent to the floor Monday night. One would extend the 14-mill gross receipts tax on public utilities to gas firms 10 million dollars yield and the other would double the four-mill bank shares tax 12 millions.

Other legislative developments: GASOLINE TAX—The House Republican caucus failed to reach a decision in an effort to pass an administration plan to increase the five-cents-a-gallon gasoline tax to six cents.

The House Democratic leadership said it would seek a final vote by the end of the week.

APPROPRIATIONS — The House received the general appropriation bill, usually a harbinger of final adjournment. Legislator leaders now are shooting for an Oct. 1 windup.

A park spokesman said it was possible Old Faithful and many other geysers had been altered by a possible shift in the subterranean cavities.

Just west of Yellowstone, Hebgen Dam was threatened with collapse by the fury of the original quake at 11:30 p. m. (MST) and a series of now-sharp, now-mild, tremors that followed.

Northward along the Madison River that flows from the 44-year-old concrete dam, officers alerted hundreds of residents to prepare for immediate evacuation. The nearest city is Emmis, Mont., 45 miles north, with an estimated 600 residents.

Hugh K. Potter, state civil defense director, said conflicting reports told of leakage and possible cracks in the dam.

The quakes epicenter was fixed 800 miles northeast of Berkeley, in southeastern Montana.

At Berkeley, Calif., a University of California seismologist set the quake's magnitude at 7.3 on the Richter scale. The San Francisco earthquake of 1906 had a magnitude of 8.25 on the same scale.

Thousands of persons across the Northwest were jolted from their sleep by the first earth shock. There were no reports of panic.

A newsman vacationing in Yellowstone National Park, Dean Stone of Maryville, Tenn., counted five separate tremors, the last at about 4:30 a. m.

Sidewalks buckled at Boise, Idaho. A miniature tidal wave was reported in Skaha Lake, 150 miles inland in British Columbia.

The chief ranger at Yellowstone said all plate glass windows in the town were broken.

State CD Director Potter said an early report told of two feet of water cascading over Hebgen Dam.

The dam is 87 feet high, 700 feet across at the top and tapering to 100 feet at the bottom.

The Montana Power Co., which owns the dam and Hebgen Reservoir, said the lake holds a third of a million acre-feet of water.

Officials began lowering Meadow Lake, north of Emmis, to provide a cushion for any sudden flood waters from the reservoir.

Potter said estimates of the warning time available to residents of Emmis in the event of a dam collapse ranged from 4 to 12 hours.

Electricity Just Taken For Granted

NEW YORK (AP)—People in a huge city take air conditioning, lights, subways, elevators, traffic signals and a lot of other things for granted. When the power is knocked out, as it was Monday, funny things happen.

A television salesman had just sold a new set to a customer when the power failure made the set go dead. The customer changed his mind and walked out.

At the New York Guild for the Jewish Blind, the blind led those who could see. In the pitch-black interior of the building, the blind, who knew their way in the dark, led fellow workers to the street.

A lot of people who weren't regular churchgoers went to church Monday night. A church was the easiest place to get candles. One Roman Catholic church gave away 100, another left three boxes of candles on the steps for passersby.

An angry resident stormed down to the basement and began blaming a baffled plumber for the power failure.

One bar patron, who perhaps had overdone it, found the dark side of the failure. Extra police were ordered into the darkened section and as the man weaved by a lighted fruit stand, he was ordered home by no less than six policemen.

Ever wonder what would happen if all the cash registers in a supermarket broke down at once? That was one of the effects of the power failure. Long lines of shoppers waited impatiently while checkers-out added up even longer lines of figures.

Idle—As the strike began its 35th day half million striking steelworkers were out and nearly 150,000 others in allied industries were furloughed.

Negotiations — Union and company officials were due to meet again today in New York.

Washington developments—President Eisenhower and his one-man fact finding task force — Secretary of Labor, Mitchell — were scheduled to discuss the strike.

Losses—Each week 300 million dollars are lost in production and 70 million dollars in wages.

Issues — Strikers want 15 cents per hour more pay plus fringe benefits. Industry says such grants would be inflationary.

Rockefeller Has Appointment To Confer with Ike

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller comes to town today to report to President Eisenhower on civil defense and to talk politics with strategically placed Republicans.

The President interrupted his stay at his Gettysburg farm home long enough for a flying trip to Washington for a series of White House conferences.

Eisenhower arranged to discuss with Rockefeller recommendations of the annual Governors' Conference for a national do-it-yourself shelter building program for protection from nuclear fallout.

Before and after this meeting, the New York governor planned to see influential Republicans with varying degrees of interest in the possibility that he may seek the 1960 GOP presidential nomination.

Among these is Senator Styles Bridges (R-NH), who is plugging Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the nomination.

If Rockefeller decides to take on Nixon, most politicians think he will have to contest the vice president in New Hampshire's first-in-the-nation presidential primary next March.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said he had planned to ask Rockefeller to be a guest at the regular weekly meeting of the Senate Republican Policy Committee where he could meet all of the Senate party members.

But Dirksen said the policy meeting had been called off because Eisenhower's schedule for the day was too crowded to permit his regular conference with party congressional leaders.

Sens. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) and Kenneth E. Keating (R-NY), who have said they will support Rockefeller if he runs, planned a luncheon meeting with the governor.

FRED M. COTTERMAN
Funeral services were held in Titusville at 1:00 p. m. today for Fred M. Cotterman, 73 year old resident of 109 Geale street, that community, and native of Warren county. The Rev. C. J. Bookamer, pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church, officiated and interment was made in Tidouche cemetery.

Mr. Cotterman, who died in Titusville Hospital Saturday following a heart attack, was born in Warren county August 21, 1886, the son of Charles and Helen Westfall Cotterman. He had been for many years a laborer for various lumber companies in the region, and resided in Tidouche before going to Titusville to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Clair Anthony. Mr. Cotterman was a member of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church.

Preceded in death by his wife, Elva Lindell Cotterman, he is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Anthony; a son, Frank, of Tidouche; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; one brother, William Cotterman of Franklin, and three sisters, Mrs. Pearl Chris, Corry; Mrs. Grace Pike, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. Blanche Spencer, Starbrick.

Two Dead in Collision Of Bus and Trailer

DONEGAL, Pa. (AP)—Two persons were killed and at least five injured today in the collision of a Greyhound bus and a tractor-trailer on the Pennsylvania Turnpike. State police said the bus plowed into the rear of the truck, left the highway and plunged down an embankment into a stream.

The two dead were pinned in the wreckage. Their names and those of the injured were not immediately available.

The injured were taken to Frick Memorial Hospital at Mount Pleasant.

The bus was en route from Pittsburgh to New York.

Two Children in Fire Die Because of Panic

PAULSBORO, N. J. (AP)—Two children died today in a fire at their home when they panicked as help neared them.

Their mother was partly overcome by smoke and four firemen were injured in a vain effort to save the children.

The victims were Wanda Holmstrom, 5, and her brother Kurt, 2.

Fireman Dayton Cooper reached their second-floor bedroom on a ladder, and saw them rushing about in a frenzy. He ripped a screen from their window and called for them to come to him.

The children, however, ran away, into the flaming bedroom. Cooper climbed in and eventually found them huddled under a bed.

Hot and Humid Weather Prevails Along Seaboard

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Weather Bureau said today that the Philadelphia area can expect more hot and humid weather the next two days because of a high pressure area centered near Bermuda and extending along the southeastern coast.

Philadelphia suffered through its fifth day of 90-degree plus temperatures Monday with the high reaching 92. Thousands of workers were dismissed early because of the heat.

Cooling thunderstorms made sleeping easier in suburbs north and west of Philadelphia Monday night and more are expected late this afternoon or tonight. But forecasters say they'll only bring temporary relief from an expected high of 94.

Temperatures in central Pennsylvania today are expected to range from 84-94 with scattered showers and thunderstorms predicted.

Meanwhile western Pennsylvania should be the coolest part of the state. The Weather Bureau forecast the second straight day of low 80 temperatures with showers and thunderstorms for the western portion.

must continue its risk-taking spanson at the cost of billions of dollars a year to be prepared for 12 million barrels in 1965! Oil men, evidently have not changed much since the days of Drake and Grandin, and certainly the hazards they face—expressed nowadays in boxcar figures—are no less than ever they were. The factor that keeps changing, growing more colossal day by day, is our dependence on their courage, determination and dedication to their job.

Rotarians Plan Weekend Auction, Rummage Sale

"Auction and rummage sale plans of Warren Rotary Club are beginning to look very good," chairman Dick Ross said today.
"We have secured some very nice items from local merchants and I'm sure the public will find a number of real bargains at the event on Friday and Saturday of this week," he added.
Rotarians have a lot of "big" items to auction off under the gavel of auctioneer Leroy Schneek. Included are two TV sets, three washing machines, a porch glider, a davenport and chairs.
Rummage sale will be conducted from YMCA parking lot beginning at 1 p. m. Friday afternoon, the second at 7:30 Friday evening.
Profits from the auctions and rummage sale will be used for Rotary welfare work, including Warren County Probation Association, high school scholarship fund and the youth ambassador program.
Materials not sold at the rummage sale will be donated to Salvation Army.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

NEW YORK (AP)—More new business corporations were formed last month than in any July on record, Dun & Bradstreet Inc. said Monday.
The total — 18,562 — compared with 16,157 new incorporations in June and 12,454 in July last year. This brought the total for the first seven months of 1959 to 119,562, also a record and up to 44 per cent from a year ago.
Dun & Bradstreet said a tax law changes providing tax advantages for small corporations prompted many small proprietorships and partnerships to incorporate. The amendments were enacted last fall.

ALLEGHENY HONORED
Allegheny Airline's unblemished safety record was honored by a representative of the National Safety Council recently in ceremonies at Washington National Airport. Presenting the Council's 1958 "Award of Honor" was Reuben D. Silverman, member of the Board of Directors of the Council and Manager of the Department of Manufacture of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Following the Allegheny tradition of having the safety award plaque presented to line personnel whose primary concern is flight safety, representatives of several departments participated, including Captain Jack Robinson, Maintenance Inspector Blaine King, Flight Dispatcher Raymond Farabaugh, and Chief Operations Agent Leroy Faucette. Allegheny was one of 13 domestic, territorial, and overseas airlines to receive the top aviation safety award of 1958 and was one of four lines qualifying for the award in both 1957 and 1958. Over 3,100,000 passengers have logged more than one-half billion safe air miles with Allegheny since the airline began passenger service in 1949.

TODAY'S WOMEN

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
Once upon a time a child was happy with a homemade rag doll or a soapbox scooter nailed together in the woodshed. Those days have gone forever.
Today the business of choosing toys is a serious science, involving expert analysis by specialists in psychology, sociology, physical development and safety.

"You can't just go out and buy any old toy for a child," says Dr. Emma Sheehy, professor of education at Columbia University and a consultant to the Toy Guidance Council for 13 years. "You have to be sure that it's the right toy for his age and interests, that it will give him full play value and develop his talents."

Pursuing this theory, the council recently celebrated its 21st birthday by setting aside one whole floor of its new building in midtown Manhattan as a toy testing laboratory. Children of various age groups are invited in to play with new toys while Dr. Sheehy and other members of the consultant committee watch through a two-way mirror from an adjoining room.

The experts grade toys as to amusement value, mental development value, vocational development value, and safety. In the latter category toys must pass various tests: smooth edges, non-toxic surfaces, appropriate size, appropriate weight and ease of manipulation.

"We pass on about 400 toys a year, submitted by various manufacturers," says Dr. Sheehy. "If a toy doesn't measure up to all the requirements we toss it out."

Dr. Sheehy's advice was enlisted by the founder of the council, Melvin Freud, in 1946. For the first two years she tested toys alone, then was assisted by Dr. Mary Moffet, professor of education at Queens College.

So when you go out to buy a toy for junior, please realize it's no laughing matter. Just think of all the tests this little toy has had to pass to get to market.
